

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

May 2010

Santa Monica, CA

Contact: Jennifer Eckstein or A. McLean Emenegger @ mm.milomclean.com

Milo + McLean is proud to serve as art consultants for
The Clare Foundation's fourth annual ART for CLARE art auction and sale
Sunday, June 13, 2010, 1p – 4p
Bergamot Station Art Center, Santa Monica, CA

For more information on the Clare Foundation, click here.

For more information and images for the event, click here.

For more information on Milo + McLean, click here.

ART for CLARE - saving lives through art and recovery.

Milo + McLean is proud to serve as art consultants for the Clare Foundation's fourth annual ART for CLARE art auction and sale at Bergamot Art Station, Santa Monica, CA.

On June 13, 2010, the Clare Foundation will host its fourth annual ART for CLARE benefit to raise funds in support of its drug and alcohol rehabilitation programs serving the homeless and indigent population of Los Angeles.

This year marks the 40th anniversary of the CLARE Foundation's providing critical and compassionate treatment, recovery, and support services for alcohol and substance abuse to low-income individuals, families, and the community.

Launched in 2007, ART for CLARE has brought together the art community and CLARE to raise the awareness and funds necessary to support its numerous programs. ART for CLARE features an art sale and auction, and catering by some of LA's best restaurants, including Joe's, Kate Mantilini, and Lemonade, set in a festive and welcoming environment.

Artists who have generously participated in ART for CLARE include Ed Ruscha, Joe Goode, Salomón Huerta, and Kim McCarty, among many others.

Milo + McLean, a Los Angeles-based art consultancy firm made up of Jennifer Eckstein and A. McLean Emenegger.